

TOURISM SERVICES - DCVC

The Dryandra Country Visitor Centre (DCVC) is owned and run by the Dryandra Country Visitor Centre Incorporated, an independent, not for profit entity, with an elected Board representative of the district, and with a charter objectives of promoting Dryandra Country attractions, services and facilities.

The DCVC has been effectively promoting Dryandra Country successfully for over twenty years. Dryandra Country is defined as all that area of land bounded by the Shires of Williams, Cuballing, Narrogin and Wickiepin.

The DCVC relies on members' support and also the support of local Shires who wish to promote their attractions collaboratively. Currently the DCVC local government membership includes the Shires of Narrogin and Cuballing. The Shire of Narrogin provides an annual performance based operating subsidy ($60,000 in FY 2019/20) to assist with promotion activities.

Shire of Narrogin LG2LG Tourism Services, through the services of the DCVC, can provide:

- Development and distribution of advertising and promotional collateral
- Connection to Tourism Operators
- Access to an accredited Visitor Centre, open 364 days per annum in the Narrogin CBD
- Promotion at Trade and Tourism Fairs.
