NEW VENTURES IN NARROGIN CBD COUNTRY WOK

There is a great deal of enthusiasm for new ventures in the Narrogin CBD.

One that is attracting high demand for another takeaway food option is the new "Country Wok" which has recently opened its doors on Ensign Street.

Shire President Leigh Ballard said "We are certainly getting some great shopping choices here in Narrogin and the district is really getting behind the new businesses in town. It's really important to continue to look local and buy local first to continue to attract new and expand existing businesses and to make our CBD vibrant, interesting and welcoming".

The Shire's CEO, Dale Stewart, and the Narrogin Chamber's President, Bevan Steele, visited owner Tom Yang to wish him every success in his new business and acknowledged his confidence in Narrogin's foody community and the wider district. Tom was presented with a Chamber welcome pack and the Shire presented local wine all wrapped up in the Shire of Narrogin 'Love the Life' calico shopping bag.

Mr Ballard added "Why not call into the Country Wok, for a fresh, convenient and tasty Chinese meal soon".
