

MEDIA RELEASE

NEW VENTURES IN NARROGIN CBD THE RUSTIC VAULT

There is a great deal of enthusiasm for new ventures in the Narrogin CBD.

One that is attracting a lot of attention is the intrinsically named “The Rustic Vault”. Once entering the building, all is revealed how this innovative homewares store has earned its name. The former bank building has been magically transformed by new business owner Carmen Degenaar and her premises provides shoppers with an ambient experience peeling back the hands of time in its magical renovation.

Shire President Leigh Ballard said “We are certainly getting some great shopping choices here in Narrogin and the district is really getting behind the new businesses in town. It’s really important to continue to look local and buy local first to continue to attract new and expand existing businesses and to make our CBD vibrant, interesting and welcoming”.

The Shire’s CEO, Dale Stewart, and the Narrogin Chamber’s President, Bevan Steele, visited Carmen to wish her every success in her new business and acknowledged her confidence in Narrogin’s retail community and the wider district. Carmen was presented with a Chamber welcome pack and the Shire presented local wine all wrapped up in the Shire of Narrogin ‘Love the Life’ calico shopping bag.

Why not call into The Rustic Vault, take in the exquisite décor and relaxing ambience and browse for that perfect piece for your home or as a wonderful gift idea.

– Ends –

Further information on this media release may be obtained by contacting Dale Stewart, enquiries@narrogin.wa.gov.au or telephone 08 9890 0900.

Approved by:
Dale Stewart
Chief Executive Officer
Shire of Narrogin
PO Box 1145
Narrogin WA 6312
Email: enquiries@narrogin.wa.gov.au

Attachments:

Owner Carmen Degenaar with Narrogin Chamber President, Bevan Steel and Shire Chief Executive Dale Stewart.

