7. GENERAL BUSINESS

Azhar Awang (EMDRS)

Apologised for being unable to attend the Local Emergency Management Forum on 1 June 2021 and therefore unable to provide a briefing at this meeting. Notes from the meeting will be provided when available.

Ronan Blaney - St John Ambulance

- They are in the process of recruiting 2 more, paid paramedics to be in the Narrogin District by the end of August 2021.

Jo Spadaccini - Department of Communities

- Due to the damage caused by cyclone Seroja, the department is conducting an audit of the building standards of all welfare centres.
- In the event of the need to use an evacuation centre while COVID social distancing restrictions are in place, advice would be sought from the Health Department on the risks involved.
- Another outcome from cyclone Seroja is education on the warning systems. How would you advise the residents of where to go if the power/phone/internet is down?
- Due to the distances that she has to travel Jo requested that she be able to attend meetings via instantaneous communication (Teams/Zoom/Skype etc).
- It was suggested that to make the meetings more productive, different organisations could arrange presentations of various scenarios for the committee to work through.
